Course Effectiveness Evaluation - 2025

MAIN RESULTS:

A total of 13,540 students participated in the survey.

Overall, the university received evaluations for 2313 courses across all faculties and specialties. The evaluation is conducted for each individual course. The evaluation is conducted for each individual course.
Courses with scores between 1.0 and 2.99: 0.73% (17 courses).

- Scores between 3.0 and 3.49: 1.47% (34 courses).
- Scores between 3.50 and 3.99: 2.85% (66 courses) — an increase of 2–4% compared to 2024.
- Scores between 4.0 and 4.49: 9.9% (229 courses).
- Scores between 4.5 and 4.99: 37.87% (875 courses).
- Score of 5.0: 47.17% (1091 courses), an increase of 7.85% compared to 2024.

STUDENTS ABOUT THE COURSES:

- They note that throughout the course, the instructor demonstrated deep knowledge and mastery of the subject – 82.27%.
- They note the high quality and usefulness of the courses – 78.04%.
- They are confident that the instructor provided a complete understanding of the course content – 79.0%.
- The instructor was able to generate interest in the subject – 78.1%.
- The instructor used active teaching strategies and engaged students in discussions – 78.37%.

Statistics by faculty
Academic year 2024–2025 (average values)

